

Electronic Thesis/Dissertation Access Form

The Loyola Notre Dame Library (LNDL) acquires, preserves, and provides access to dissertations produced in the doctoral programs of Loyola University Maryland and Notre Dame of Maryland University and theses written for master's degrees. These are accessible via LNDL's digital repository.

Students must, as a condition of a degree award, provide one electronic copy of their thesis or dissertation with completed signature pages to LNDL, together with this form. LNDL recommends students discuss the terms of this form with their thesis/dissertation advisor.

Student Agreement:

Research Approvals

I hereby certify that I have obtained the required institutional approvals if my research involves human subjects, protected health information, animals, radiation or other hazardous materials, and the like. In addition, this thesis or dissertation does not contain personally identifiable information that would compromise assurances of confidentiality to research participants.

Copyright

Please select one of the following options:

I own the copyright in the thesis or dissertation as its author. I hereby grant to Loyola Notre Dame Library and its agents the non-exclusive, world-wide, royalty-free license to archive and make accessible, under the conditions specified below, my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. I retain all other rights, title, and interest in my thesis or dissertation and may use all or part of my thesis or dissertation in future works (such as conference presentations or papers, articles, or books).

I have produced my thesis or dissertation for the U.S. Government as an officer or employee and therefore the thesis or dissertation is not subject to copyright (17 U.S.C. § 105).

Further, I hereby certify that, where warranted, I have obtained and attached hereto written permission statements from the owners of each third party copyrighted matter to be included in my thesis or dissertation, allowing distribution as specified below.

Release Statement

In addition to the unrestricted display of the bibliographic information and the abstract, I agree that the above-mentioned document will be placed in the LNDL digital repository with the following status (choose one option from each of the options below). In all cases, the full text of all theses and dissertations will be available for unrestricted open access worldwide through LNDL's institutional repository either immediately or after the embargo period expires.

Unrestricted Open Access: Release the entire thesis or dissertation for free, open access worldwide.

Immediate Release (Preferred option except in rare situations noted below), or

Embargoed: Keep the thesis or dissertation from public access for a period of (select one)

1 year

2 years

3 years

while I pursue a commercial opportunity (such as a book contract or patent) or to meet research sponsor requirements.

I hereby agree to the statements above and the indicated terms of access to my thesis/dissertation. I understand that LNDL recommends students discuss these terms with their thesis/dissertation advisor.

Name (printed) _____ Email: _____

Signature _____ Date _____